

AXEL KOWOLLIK

Axel Kowolik has been travelling the world as a musician since 1969, in bands playing everywhere from cult clubs like The Brass Monkey in Sydney to huge venues like the Olympic Stadium in Berlin and countless international television broadcasts.

In the beginning of 2014, he published his solo album “Out on the perimeter” - an acoustic rock tribute to life on the edge.

Now he’s packing his bags again and wandering the planet as a lone singer - songwriter.

Photo: Hadmut Danisch

“OUT ON THE PERIMETER”

is Axel Kowolik's new album, with 10 unconventional tracks that masterfully phase between acoustic tunes and rock songs. It is the Steppenwolf-like perspective of a convinced outsider who is not tortured with the desire to belong and to whom the protest of the majority means as little as their applause. It is the unflinching position of one individual with a clear outlook on his fellow man from his distant outpost.

"It's cold out here - but the view is fantastic."

1. Oblivion
2. Don't Look Now
3. Daydream
4. My Heart
5. If I Made Love To You
6. Hell Town
7. Borders
8. Rattle The Cage
9. Under Ground
10. Already Gone

PHOTOS

Photos maybe reproduced free of charge with appropriate acknowledgements.

JPG (800 x 614 px) - 300 dpi © Hadmut Danisch

JPG (700 x 600px) - 300 dpi © Stephanie Forryan

JPG (800 x 799 px) - 300 dpi © John H. Schiessler

VIDEOS

Rattle the cage

Don't Look Now

Daydream

Contact

Stephanie Forryan, Management

mail

axelkowolik.com